HPW	C55	I	Hawarden Castle	332003	365202	Hawarden	Listed building: Hawarden Castle Grade II. Scheduled Ancient Monument: Hawarden Castle (F16). Conservation Area: Hawarden; part of site.	Landscape park; semi-formal garden; informal garden with picturesque ruins; walled kitchen garden. Survival of early eighteenth-century turf amphitheatre; fine example of early nineteenth-century picturesque landscaping of both park and garden, including a ruined mediaeval castle as a focal point; involvement of William Sawrey Gilpin in 1830
HPW	PGW (C) 77(FLT)	II	Shotton Steelworks Gar	331291	369430	Sealand	Former Office Buildings, Shotton Steelworks (grade II)	Formal garden and forecourt, about 1951. The survival of the layout, formal structure and much of the major planting of a formal garden and forecourt designed with ingenuity and subtlety by the very distinguished landscape architect Sylvia Crowe. The office and support buildings and the contemporary garden and forecourt form an integrated design. A particular aim of the garden was to provide recreational space for the office workers.the adjacent office buildings.
